Our students want to tell YOU about their experience in the Baltimore Speaks Out! Program...

I would like to teach youth to branch out, try new things, and be open to new things. This experience is awesome because you can meet new people and learn great skills that (I think) are vital to succeed in this world.

–BSOP Student 2008

- This program makes me think how much more I can do with a camera and how fun it is being in front of a camera.

– BSOP Student 2008

- I would like to tell youth about how this program has helped me IMPROVE my video skills and helped me with public speaking. – BSOP Student 2008

- I learned how to use a camera and I also learned how to make music videos and movies. Since being in the Program Miss Sarah teaches us how to do everything. She has been so nice to me and probably to you, and everyone else. – BSOP Student 2007

- It has influenced my child to try new things and not be afraid to interact with her peers and gave her confidence in herself. - BSOP Herring Run Parent 2008

SERVICE LEARNING AGREEMENT

The Enoch Pratt Free Library and Wide Angle Youth Media offer service learning credits to all Baltimore Speaks Out! students who display outstanding attendance. These hours can be used to fulfill a portion of the 75-hour service-learning requirement of all Baltimore City Public School students.

I understand that the 25 hours of service learning hours will only be awarded if my child attends at least 90% of the workshop sessions. I understand that if my child has 75%-89% attendance they will receive between 10-20 service learning hours and if their attendance rate is 74% or less they will be ineligible for any service learning hours. At the end of the workshop, The Enoch Pratt Free Library will send me an official letter verifying my child's service learning hours. I understand that it is MY RESPONSIBILITY to bring the official letter to my child's school for their service learning hours to be recorded.

By signing this agreement I will help my child maintain great attendance so they may earn service learning hours!
